1
2 EXPLANATION OF BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE IN A CHAPTER 13 CASE

3 This court order grants a discharge to the person named as the debtor
4 after the debtor has completed all payments under the chapter 13 plan. It is
5 not a dismissal of the case.

6 Collection of Discharged Debts Prohibited

7 The discharge prohibits any attempt to collect from the debtor a debt
8 that has been discharged. For example, a creditor is not permitted to contact 9 a debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise, to file or continue a lawsuit, to 10 attach wages or other property, or to take any other action to collect a
11 discharged debt from the debtor. [In a case involving community property:]
12 [There are also special rules that protect certain community property owned by 13 the debtor's spouse, even if that spouse did not file a bankruptcy case.] A 14 creditor who violates this order can be required to pay any damages and 15 attorney's fees to the debtor.

16 However, a creditor may have the right to enforce a valid lien, such as 17 a mortgage or security interest, against the debtor's property after the 18 bankruptcy, if that lien was not avoided or eliminated in the bankruptcy case.
19 Also, a debtor may voluntarily pay any debt that has been discharged.

20 Debts That are Discharged

21 The chapter 13 discharge order eliminates a debtor's legal obligation to pay a
22 debt that is discharged. Most, but not all, types of debts are discharged if 23 the debt is provided for by the chapter 13 plan or is disallowed by the court
24 pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code.

25 Debts that are Not Discharged.

26 Some of the common types of debts which are not discharged in a chapter 13
27 bankruptcy case are:

- 28 a. Debts that are in the nature of alimony, maintenance, or support;
29 b. Debts for most student loans;
30 c. Debts for most fines, penalties, forfeitures, or criminal restitution
31 obligations;
32 d. Debts for personal injuries or death caused by the debtor's operation
33 of a motor vehicle while intoxicated;
34 e. Debts provided for under section 1322(b) (5) of the Bankruptcy Code and 35 on which the last payment is due after the date on which the final
36 payment under the plan was due; and
37 f. Debts for certain consumer purchases made after the bankruptcy case was 38 filed if prior approval by the trustee of the debtor's incurring the 39 debt was practicable but was not obtained.

40 This information is only a general summary of the bankruptcy discharge.
41 There are exceptions to these general rules. Because the law is 42 complicated, you may want to consult an attorney to determine the exact
43 effect of the discharge in this case.
